M. E. CONFERENCE.

It began its Session Yesterday Morning at New.

Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church commenced its sessions yesterday morning at Grace M. E. Church, Newport, and was addressed by Bishop J. N. Fitzgerald of Toledo, Ohio.

The conference is composed of 100 charges and 129 with probation.

The Bishop presented drafts for $100 as dividends from the Methodist Book Concern and a draft of $22 from the chartered fund.

One hundred laymen are entitled to seats tomorrow, when two laymen will be elected as Delegates to the General Conference, which will be held in Chicago next May.

A PASTOR'S WORK.

What the Rev. D. P. Holt Has Done the Past Year in Dayton.

The annual report of Tower M. E. Church at Dayton for the conference year ending last Tuesday shows a good financial standing for the church, of which Rev. D. P. Holt, for many years, has been pastor.

The church has paid off old indebtedness $718.00; current expenses, $10,49; improvements, $8,00; for Ministerial support, $600; Benevolence, $207.00; expenses not classed, $100.00, making a grand total of $20,327.82.

The pastor presided 100 sermons, attended 50 prayer-meetings, 45 Sabbath-school services, 12 official meetings, 30 Epworth League meetings, conducted 27 funerals, married 3 couples, attended 29 chaste meetings, baptized 16 adults and 14 children, received 72 into the Church membership and made 97 pastoral visits.

This is an exceedingly gratifying showing, but only proves what the man from Mayville can accomplish when he tries.

VEITH—BRODT.

Nuptials Yesterday Afternoon at the Bride's Home Near This City.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Brodt was the scene of a very pretty wedding on this yesterday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Jacobs, became the wife of Mr. Daniel Veith of Newport.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's Pastor, Rev. F. W. Harrop of the M. E. Church, who came up from Newport, where he had been attending Conference, to officiate.

The home was filled with relatives and intimate friends of the bridal party, several guests coming from from Newport.

Mr. Brodt is a handsome lad, and this occasion looked her best.

Mr. Veith is also at his home city, and is to be congratulated in securing one of Mason's daughters as his life partner.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Veith left on the 4:30 train for their future home at Newport.

The bride, with hosts of warm friends, tendered best wishes to the happy couple.

Older Barrels for sale at Chenevert's Drugstore.

You may bridle the appetite, but you can not bribe the liver to do its work well. You can not keep the heart well along a little longer, but you can not make it work any longer.

The affairs of the Richmond Electric Light Company are in a condition of great perplexity, and growing interest. The Company's attorney went to Cincinnati and attached $2000 belonging to the President, D. J. House, on deposit at the Market National Bank.

Mr. Charles Bradford, aged 21, and Miss Lucy McLain, aged 16, were married at the home of the bride on the Lexington pike.

The great success of Chamberlain's Coal, Charcoal and Dierck's Nenody in the treatment of bowel complaints has made it stand over the greater part of the civilized world.

Citizens of Farou, N. D., have appointed a committee to investigate the claims and stand over the Black Diamond Railway project, which is now planned by Chamberlain and his associates, extending Farou to the Black Diamond River, and is to be projected, it is said, to North Dakota through the various states and cities, beginning at Port Huron, Mich., and reaching, it is said, to the Gulf of Mexico. The project is to be built by a company from Veray to Vincennes, Ind., thence through Indiana to Alton, Ill., thence to St. Louis, Mo., and to St. Paul, Minn., to Fargo.

Thales' Oil—A remarkable oil which relieves the intense itching. It soothes, heals and cures chronic cases where astringents fail. It is no experiment. An oil increases through its cures. Every bottle guaranteed. Price 50 cents in bottles. Thales' Oil, J. J. Wood & Son.

It's hard to beat the C. and O. Railway in up-to-date movements.

The latest lightning change took place Monday of this week at California.

Within an hour and fifty minutes the Depot at that place, which has formerly stood a third of a mile out of town, was moved into the village, and made ready for business.

The reason was that the town had grown wrong way.

The "Shop" presented drafts for $100 as dividends from the Methodist Book Concern and a draft of $22 from the chartered fund.

One hundred laymen are entitled to seats tomorrow, when two laymen will be elected as Delegates to the General Conference, which will be held in Chicago next May.

Mrs. F. L. and children of Texas are visiting her brother, Mr. D. H. Eckman.

B. C. Fowley returned from Vicksburg, Ind., Friday, in account of sickness.

Prof. and Mrs. Lummo of Lexington were the guests of his mother several days last week.

Mrs. Josephine Henderson and daughter of Lexington are visiting her mother, Mrs. Isaac Power.

Mrs. James Meane and children of Lexington are spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. M. L. Meane.

Mrs. Jessie Gibson and Master Charles Marshall left for Lexington, Ky., last Thursday to attend College.

Mrs. E. F. Fowley is married. Wednesday morning she and her son had been visiting relatives in Mayfield.

Dr. R. A. Brown, wife and son and Mrs. Nannie Henderson are the guests of his father, Mr. Joseph Brown, of Mayfield this week.

Mr. R. T. Marshall, his daughter, Mrs. Fida, and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will be in town next week to visit Mrs. Marshall's father, Mr. Taylor. Miss Marshall was married at attorney offices here.

SHELL ROCK SAYINGS.

Some Items of Interest from One of Mason County's Historic Localities.

John Deatley has the contract for plastering Fred King's new house.

Henry Clegg is a tenant house on Main Street, Mayfield.

Miss Bessie Clegg is teaching our school this year. School commenced last Monday.

There are more tobacco worms in this part of the country than there are ticks for God's sake.

Mr. Jim Hulser and children of near South Ripley visited relatives here last Saturday and Sunday.

Lotta, the little daughter of Dr. Dutcher, had not had a severe case of fever, a better time to get well.

A large amount of oak lumber has been hauled from Elizabethtown to Mayfield in the last few weeks. Free turnpikes, you know.

Misses Annie Myers and Jessie Hanes of Kentucky Creek attended Church at Plumtree last Sunday and were highly pleased with the service.

No one knew what the citizens of B. R. were taking of having Napoleon's feet sent these to you things, but the Duke has gone dry and the Emperor is still in the saddle.

Mr. John Helm, who died at Vicksburg some weeks ago, kindly recommended Clarice Carr of Bakersfield, Calif., to William Charley. Charley the old boy had some valuable advice.

A Mayfield man who was out this was a few days ago, and used one of our citizens if there were any Goobies out here. "What are you doing with your time?" he asked. Evidently the man from Mayfield was not requiring about some kind of a warm.

Henry Day says he will give $10 a year for preaching at Plumtree twice a month. Henry is not a member of any Church but the Methodist. The Goobies are not here to tell us all how his example and it will be the best year in the history of the Church in the little town of ours.

W. H. and M. H. Hurlin have been invited to speak at the Kentucky Christian Conference which meets at Westerville, Carrollton, on Thursday before the third Sunday in this month and continues four days. Mr. and Mrs. John and Jim Farns are invited with us. We do not expect to take any guns along and of course we will see lots of things that ought to be shot, but we will see all about it when we get back, if we ever do.

Mrs. Harriett Pollitt, the wife of F. A. Pollitt, whose illness has been mentioned in THE LEDGER, is no better at this writing, with little hope for improvement. She has been ill for a week and a few days longer and her good husband will have waited here for 32 years. Mr. Pollitt is in his 70th year. They have both been valuable members of the Methodist Church for many years. They are now like little children, but we are glad to know that they are leaning on the strong arm of Jesus.

Mr. Frank Yazzell of Lima, O., came in last Monday evening with his mother and other relatives and friends. Of course, Mr. Yazzell and all other good people reads THE LEDGER and wants to be kept informed of news from home. He has a copy of the paper with him and will read it four hours after it is published. We hope to keep him better posted in the future about any sickness or death that may

KENTUCKY FLASHES.

A Hot Day in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 7.—The government thermometer Wednesday registered 103 degrees at 2:40, the highest ever recorded here with the exception of August 13, 1851, when 105 degrees was registered. The weather was hot and sultry, the mercury remained above the even mark, half a dozen pronostications are reported, but one resulting fatally. The victim was George A. Jones, an old newspaper man. Extremely hot weather is reported from all over the state.

He Choked to Juries.

WHITEHORN, Ky., Sept. 7.—John C. Langry, formerly of Knott county, aged 15, was tried Wednesday in the Leitcher circuit court and given two years in the Kentucky penitentiary for attempting to commit a maim in a assault on a Mrs. Scott of Rockcastle county. Month ago Purdy is the young criminal ever sent up from Kentucky. He is said to have been 16 years old when he was arrested on being sentenced, and said, "I expected five years at least. Thank you, gentlemen."

Savage Assault on a Prisoner.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 7.—John Buckley, assistant warehouse keeper, made a savage attack on a Negro prisoner, who was, it is said, a murderer, in the state prison, Frankfort, 24 miles from Louisville, 200 miles from Cincinnati. Health, peace and recreation. Several different kinds of mineral water are recommended.

Yankee, Turkish and mud bath.

Natural soap, beautiful lake, fine bathing and bathing, unexpected hotel accommodations.

For health and recreation, the following are recommended: Dr. J. A. L. Thompson, Springs, Coal county, Illinois; Agents of the H. and G. W. Rawson, or O. P. McWatty, General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, O.

Cheap Honeymooners' Excursion.

On August 10 and 11th, September 5th and 6th, and October 3rd and 4th, 1890, the round trip between Mayfield and Cincinnati will be on sale at St. Louis round trip honeymen's excursion tickets to points in Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, and the Ohio River.

For further information, see the office of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. L. Thompson, 101 Spring Street, Cincinnati, O.

Operating Without a Franchise.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 7.—The independent distillers of the state will meet in Frankfort on Saturday, September 14th, to consider the question of limiting production. The refusal of the trust to grant any concessions to the committee sent to New York will be reported. A plan to fight the trust will be discussed.

He Died at Home.

ML. STEERLING, Ky., Sept. 7.—John Miller died at his home Wednesday morning of consumption. Miller had been in a Cincinnati hospital for several weeks, and, being convinced that medical aid could not save his life, he requested that he be brought home to die.

Operating Without a Franchise.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 7.—The city council Tuesday night rejected the $300 bid of E. H. Iridia for a ten-year telephone franchise. The East Tennessee is operating here now, but the course has decided that it had no franchise.

Morris Appointed.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 7.—Wm. N. Morris, of Bourbon county, has been appointed a clerk in the state register of land office to succeed Sam Shepard, who recently resigned to become secretary of the republican campaign committee.

Frasher Nominated for the Legislature.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 7.—The representative for this legislative district, held here, nominated Rev. J. H. Sturgell for representative from Boyd and Lawrence counties.

Convention Called.

Pledged to Repeal the Gobell Law.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 7.—It has been decided by republican leaders that all legislative candidates shall be pledged to repeal the Gobell law.

THE GREAT RACE.

Star Pointer Won the First Heat and Patchen the Last Two—Star Pointer Will Never Again.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Fifteen thousand enthusiastic spectators were at the Empire City trotting track Wednesday to see the great race between the star pacers, Star Pointer, Joe Patchen, H. R. Gentry and Searchlight.

In the betting rings there was a surging crowd only too anxious to bet 100 to 30 on Star Pointer against the field, until pool selling was stopped by the local authorities.

Star Pointer was the first heat beaten Joe Patchen by a narrow margin.

In the second heat Joe Patchen won by a length. Then 3000, the fastest mare made in a race this season.

There was a rush to cover amongst the spectators who recognized that the old time racing king was to be dethroned, and they made no mistake. As soon as the word was given Joe Patchen started out to complete his victory, and he did it in a most effective manner. Star Pointer broke so badly that he was distanced and was unable to get into the race. He was compelled to compete with the horse that beat him at Rochester, and which beat him at Rochester. The time of the last heat was 2:04 1/4. It was announced that Star Pointer would never race again.

McNamee's Memorable Escape.

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 7.—An explosion at the Midland steel works Wednesday morning wrecked a large boiler and tore the outside of the boiler building. James Robison, the foreman, was attempting to light the gas when the explosion occurred. He was directly against the boiler, but was not injured.

SHORT SPECIALS.

The bark Katty was lost in a typhoon in the China sea. The captain, his wife and children and eleven of the crew were drowned.
